LEGENDARY VENUES, EPIC EVENTS

Irving Plaza has an esteemed history as NYC's premiere music venue. Converted into a musical venue after years as a dance hall, it has hosted such superstar artists as U2, Eric Clapton, Bob Dylan, Pearl Jam, Jane's Addiction, and continues to be a major stepping stone on the career path of hundreds of artists every year. Its location, one block east of Union Square adds to its convenience and charm. Guests enter through the classic lobby and climb one flight to the main room, a 3,300 square foot clear span ballroom with polished wooden floors, crystal chandeliers & a fixed stage. A u-shaped balcony with fantastic sight-lines overlooks the dance floor. The main floor features a full-service bar at the back of the hall. The Balcony Lounge is the perfect setting for a cocktail reception with a rock and roll edge. Production elements include state-of-the-art lighting, sound and video.
